

Governor's Institute for World Language Educators K-12

Begins:

Sunday, July 20 2008 at 2:00 PM

Ends:

Friday, July 25 2008 at 1:00 PM

- Are you interested in being one of the first World Language or Classical educators in Pennsylvania to work with Assessment in Light of the PA Academic Standards for World Languages and Classical Languages and the ACTFL National Standards?
- Would you like to create and develop standards-based instruction and assessments that can be used in all grades K-12?
- Would you like the opportunity to participate in an interactive, small-group, hands-on, collaborative venture with World Language and Classical educators from across the state?
- Do you want to learn about the utilization of technology to support and globalize learning?
- How do we compare different methodologies of FLES, FLEX and IMMERSION?

Institute Goals:

Our goal is to actively involve K-12 Pennsylvania's World Language and Classical educators in a leadership program which will prepare them to:

- Set student achievement expectations based on PA Academic Standards for World Languages and Classical Languages;
- Develop assessed standards-based embedded instruction;
- Utilize technology in classroom instruction to support and globalize learning; and
- Lead others in their schools and communities in planning for and implementing a standards-based World Languages program.

These goals will be accomplished through:

- Learning experiences developed and facilitated by experts;
- Demonstration of the most current technologies;
- Rigorous intellectual dialogue;
- PA's finest examples of FLES, FLEX and IMMERSION

Program Highlights:

- Inter-active teleconferences with World Language teachers from around the world.
- A True World Language Connection Standard that demonstrates an integrated curriculum where proficiency levels in literacy and mathematics will be increased throughout the schools of Pennsylvania.

Participants are required to:

- Take a needs assessment and posttest on knowledge related to the content being covered in the institute;
- Participate in all Institute activities;
- Submit written reflections on selected activities, along with a standards and assessment-based Unit Plan, according to the Guidelines of the Institute.
- Apply the techniques of the institute in their classrooms upon return to school;
- Lead a workshop locally following the institute and report on the outcome.

Location:

The Institute will be held at Villanova University from July 20-25 2008.

Please fill out the On-Line Scholarship Application Form at <http://www.papde.ws> by May 9 2008. Late online applications will be considered only as availability occurs.

Scholarship recipients will be provided with a program of study, credits, meals, housing, and access to websites containing all the components of the Institute. Applicants will be informed of their status by June 6 2008, at which time additional information on the program, lodging, directions, etc. will be provided.

*This is a required on campus residential scholarship – all participants MUST reside on campus during the program***

When you are notified of your acceptance, a $75.00 check needs to accompany your registration information. This check will be returned to you providing that you complete the institute.
