Have you ever met a teacher who is more passionate about what they do than a World Language teacher? Language teachers have incredible amounts of energy that is fueled by the interest of finding new "tricks" that will work in their classrooms. What quick and easy methods do you have for promoting conversation, practicing vocabulary, assessing participation, or improving written work?

Since we know that some of the best ideas come from what we learn from each other, we ask you to complete the following and BRING WITH YOU TO THE INSTITUTE:

- ◆ On no more than one typed page, completely describe a favorite activity that you use in your language class for something as basic as taking roll or as complex as a debate.
- ◆ Make 25 copies and bring it to the Institute.
- ◆ Share your passion with a group and when you leave you will have numerous new ideas that will energize your teaching!
